

binding in like manner, as any acknowledgment of special bail duly entered in open court in an action there pending; and on entering such special bail and paying to the clerk the same tax as for an original writ, which tax shall be accounted for and paid over by the said clerk in the manner provided for by the act to which this is a supplement; it shall be the duty of the clerk to issue the writ of certiorari without requiring the seal of a judge, and the clerk shall docket every action so removed, on the same docket as appeals from the judgments of justices of the peace; and at the time of issuing every writ of certiorari, the clerk shall issue a subpoena directed, and giving notice to the other party or parties named in such writ, as in cases of appeal; and the proceedings in each case so removed may be similar, in every respect to those authorized by law in appeal cases; subject nevertheless to such rules as shall be adopted from time to time by the court.

See preceding note.

SEC. 8. Repealed by 1834, ch. 211, sec. 2, and 1834, ch. 233, sec. 2.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for the despatch of Business in Baltimore County Court.—1830, ch. 159.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Four terms to be held.
That from and after the thirteenth day of April next, there shall be in each and every year four city terms of Baltimore county court, instead of eight, as required by the third section of the act to which this is a supplement.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, When to be held.
That the terms of said court, as provided by this act, shall be held as follows, that is to say, the first day of May shall be the commencement of the first term; the first day of September shall commence the second term; the first day of December shall commence the third term; and the first day of January shall commence the fourth term; unless either of those days shall happen on Sunday, in which case the term shall commence on the next day; and the judges of the said court, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized and required, to pass all such rules as may be necessary and proper for carrying into effect the provisions of this act.

The December term is abolished by 1832, ch. 203.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, Period of service of persons as jurymen.
That no person shall be required to serve more than twenty-one days in any one year, as a jurymen, in the said court, for the transaction of city business, except it be in a case where a jury has been empanelled and sworn within the said time, and a verdict has not been rendered by such jury, and if any person, so having served twenty-one days shall be returned by the sheriff of Baltimore county upon any panel of jurors summoned by him,
