

returned to or filed in his office, nor shall he be entitled to demand or receive any fee therefor, unless some person or party interested therein, shall in writing require the same to be so recorded.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That instead of recording at full length or making up a complete record of the proceedings herein before mentioned, it shall be the duty of the said clerk to provide one or more substantial and well bound books, and therein immediately after the return to, or filing in his office of all and every such application, to enter in a fair and correct manner the proceedings had upon all and every such application, and such entries shall contain the name of the applicant, the date of his or her application, the name or names and date of the appointment of the provisional and permanent trustees, and other memoranda, as they do or shall appear by the proceedings had under such application, and the said books shall be duly and regularly alphabetized; and if any person or persons shall require an exemplification or official copy of any such application, it shall be lawful for the said clerk to grant and certify the same, and the minutes of the court, the docket entries aforesaid, and the original papers and documents filed upon such application, shall be sufficient vouchers to the said clerks for entering the style of the court by which, and the term and year in which such proceeding was had, and for making a due and proper record thereof.

Proceedings on such applications to be entered, &c.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said clerk, without delay, to record, or cause to be recorded, in sufficient and well bound books, and in a fair and correct manner, the bond or bonds of the permanent trustee or trustees of all and every such applicant, hereafter returned to or filed in his office, and which said books shall be regularly paged and alphabetized, and that the said clerk, for the performance of all and every duty hereby imposed, shall be entitled to charge, demand and receive, the same fees as are now allowed by law for the like or similar services.

Bonds of trustees to be recorded

---

AN ACT Supplementary to the Act, entitled, an Act for the despatch of Business in Baltimore County Court.—1831, ch. 15.

Repealed by 1834, ch. 211, sec. 5, and 1834, ch. 233, sec. 5.

---

A further SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for the despatch of Business in Baltimore County Court.—1831, ch. 64.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the two terms of April and November in each and every year, shall be held on the first Monday of said month, and shall be called county terms, and be exclusively set apart and appointed for the trials of causes and hearing appeals, in which

Time pre-scribed and appropriated; county terms.