

SEC. 4. And it enacted, That whenever at any term in the opinion of the judges of said county court, it shall be deemed proper, the said county court may from time to time, order another jury to be summoned to said court in addition to the regularly attending jury of the term, for the trial of any causes standing for trial at such term, and may assign one of the judges of the said court to preside at the trial of causes before such additional jury; which trials may be proceeded with at the same time that causes shall be trying before the regular attending jury aforesaid; Provided however, that no cause shall be tried before such additional jury which any of the parties by counsel or otherwise shall at the first call of the trial docket, require to be tried before the regularly attending jury aforesaid, and all such causes so required to be tried, shall be so tried, if practicable, and while trying no cause shall be tried before an additional jury as aforesaid; and all the rules applicable to juries generally in such court shall apply to such additional juries.

Additional jury.Assign a judge.

Provide.

A further SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act for the despatch of Business in Baltimore County Court.—1836, ch. 133.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the provisions of the second and third sections of the act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-five, chapter two hundred and thirty-five, shall hereafter extend to all cases of insolvent debtors in the city of Baltimore, which are pending in Baltimore county court, and in which the trustees of such insolvent debtors shall not have distributed the funds and effects belonging to their trust, or otherwise closed their trust; Provided, that in allowing commissions to such trustees, the court shall allow the same commissions to which trustees would have been entitled under the provisions of the tenth section of the act passed in eighteen hundred and five, chapter one hundred and ten; And provided further, that so much of the supplement as extends the operation of the second and third sections of the act aforesaid, shall not be applied to those trustees heretofore appointed, who shall, within the term of twelve months from their appointment, or from the receipt of undistributed funds by them, apply to said court, or to some court of equity, for an audit or investigation of their accounts or for permissions, directions or instructions, either to distribute or invest the funds in their hands.

Provisions extended.

Provisos.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the power and authority of Baltimore county court, to appoint a special auditor in cases of insolvency, and to superintend and direct the distribution of the estates of insolvent debtors, shall be deemed to be concurrent with that of the courts of equity in this state.

Special auditors.