

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said warden shall account with the visitors for all sums of money which he may collect as jail fees for prisoners confined in the jail, or from any other source connected with the institution. Warden to account.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said visitors may at their will and pleasure remove said warden from office, and appoint another in his stead, and that they shall allow such compensation to said warden and his assistants, as they may think reasonable and proper. Removal of warden.
Compensation.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said visitors shall keep regular books of accounts, in which the whole expenses of the jail, whether for supplies, salaries of officers, repairs or incidentals, shall be distinctly stated, as also all the receipts and expenditures upon the different dockets, in such a manner, as that these accounts may shew what is chargeable to Baltimore county, and what chargeable to Baltimore city. Visitors' books, &c.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That all expenses attending the repairs, alterations and improvements of the jail, and of the property appertaining thereto, shall be paid for in equal proportions, by Baltimore county and Baltimore city; and all other necessary expenses incurred by the said visitors, shall be paid by Baltimore county and Baltimore city, in the proportions properly chargeable to the said county and city respectively, having regard to the number of prisoners and the expense of keeping the same, which shall have been sent from the county and from the city. Assessment of repairs, &c.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the said visitors shall annually make out a full and fair account of all the public money by them received from the commissioners of Baltimore county, and from any other sources for the use of Baltimore county, and the manner in which it has been expended; which shall be exhibited to said commissioners, together with an estimate of what will be necessary for the following year, the amount of which estimate shall be assessed and levied by the said county commissioners, and collected as other county charges, and paid to the said visitors for the use of said prison. Visitors' annual accounts of county moneys, &c.
Levied.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the said visitors shall annually make out a full statement of all the public money received by them from the register of the city of Baltimore, or from any other source for the use of the city of Baltimore, and the manner in which it has been expended; which statement shall be laid before the mayor and city council of Baltimore, together with an estimate of what will be necessary for the following year, the amount of which estimate shall be levied on the property in the city of Baltimore, and paid to the visitors of the jail. Do. of city moneys.

SEC. 17, 18. Related to expenses already incurred.