

AN ACT authorizing the Commissioners of Baltimore County to appoint Trustees to the Poor of said County.—1838, ch. 263.

May appoint three trustees annually.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of February, eighteen hundred and forty, the commissioners of Baltimore county shall appoint three efficient and well qualified persons from said county, to act as trustees to the poor of said county, and such appointment shall be made annually on the first Monday in February, or at their first meeting thereafter.

Restriction.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That no trustee shall serve for more than five successive years, unless he shall receive the unanimous vote of the board of commissioners.

PUBLIC ROADS.

The act of 1794, ch. 52, ante page 1334, embraces Baltimore County. To save the re-print thereof, it will be here referred to, and its modifications as to Baltimore, will be only classed under this chapter.

The second section of that act is modified by 1795, ch. 43, sec. 3, ante page 1386, which fixes the maximum of the annual levy for repairing the public roads in Baltimore County, at five shillings in the one hundred pounds.

The 3d, 4th and 5th sec. of 1794, ch. 52, are repealed by 1797, ch. 109. See 1826, ch. 217, ante page 1650.

Sec. 7, is modified as to Baltimore County so far as relates to the securities by 1797, ch. 109.

Sec. 13, is modified as to Baltimore County, by 1797, ch. 109.

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act relating to Public Roads in this State, and to repeal the Acts of Assembly therein mentioned.—1797, ch. 109.

Part of an act repealed &c.

* Ch. 52.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the seventh section of the said original act, passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-four,* as directs the several supervisors to give bond, with such security as shall be approved by the said justices, be and hereby is repealed, so far as it concerns Baltimore county, and that instead thereof, every supervisor appointed in Baltimore county in virtue of the said act shall, within thirty days next after his appointment, give bond to the state of Maryland, with such sureties as shall be approved by the clerk of the said county, who is hereby directed and required to take the same in double the sum that may be apportioned by the levy court to be expended or laid out by the said supervisor; Provided, that no security shall be approved as aforesaid by the clerk of the said county, unless it be established, to the satisfaction of such clerk, that each and every such surety be seized and possessed, in his own right, of a clear free-hold estate of the value of double the sum of money that may be apportioned as
