

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, to provide for the distribution of that part of the School Fund, which is appropriated to Baltimore County, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and eighty-five.—1832, ch. 73.

WHEREAS, it often happens that persons appointed under the original act, to which this is a supplement, as trustees for the distribution of the school fund, in Baltimore county, refuse or neglect to act as such, in which case no provision is made by law for substituting other persons competent and willing to act in their places; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of Baltimore county, whenever they shall appoint any trustee, for the distribution of the school fund, to give notice thereof to the person so appointed, and if such person shall not, within thirty days after service of such notice, give information to the said commissioners of his consent or refusal to act as such trustee, then the said commissioners shall proceed to appoint a person residing in the same district, to fill the place of the person refusing or neglecting to give information as aforesaid; and if any person heretofore appointed as such trustee, shall refuse or neglect to act as such, the said commissioners are hereby required to appoint another person in the same district, to fill his place as trustee, in the same manner as if such person had actually resigned.

Case of non-acceptance of trustee.

Others to be appointed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if any trustee for the distribution of the school fund in Baltimore county, shall hereafter neglect or refuse to exhibit to the commissioners of said county, an annual account of the money distributed by him, as provided in the original act, to which this is a supplement, it shall not be lawful for the said commissioners to pay over to such trustee, any further sum for distribution, until such account is exhibited, and finally settled, to the satisfaction of the said commissioners; and if such trustee shall refuse or neglect to account as aforesaid within ten days after he shall be required so to do, by the said commissioners, he shall be considered as refusing to act, and the said commissioners shall proceed to appoint another person in his place, as herein before provided.

Trustee neglecting to account.

No further payment to.
