

STONE QUARRIES.

AN ACT relating to the Stone Quarries on the Falls Turnpike Road, near Baltimore.—1822, ch. 66.

WHEREAS, a dangerous and alarming practice has prevailed at the stone quarries on the Falls road, near Baltimore, of making explosions without regard to the safety of travellers; therefore, Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Notice.
That from and after the first day of May next, the proprietors of all the quarries on either side of the Falls turnpike road, between the second mile stone on said road and the city of Baltimore, be, and they are hereby required to cause notice to be given, by means of a bell of such size and sound as may be heard at the distance of six hundred yards, of each and every explosion or blast, at least five minutes before any such explosion or blast shall be made.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, Penalty. That for each and every violation or neglect of the provision of this act, the proprietor (or tenant, in case of lease) of the quarry wherein such neglect or violation shall occur, be, and he is hereby subject to a fine of ten dollars, to be recovered by warrant before any justice of the peace of Baltimore county or city; the whole to go to the informer.

TREASURER.

See 1826, ch 217, ante page 1650, and 1827, ch. 167, ante page 1652, title, 'County Commissioners.'

TRESPASS.

AN ACT to declare certain Trespasses Felony, and for other purposes. 1826, ch 260.

Repealed as to Baltimore County, by 1827, ch. 51, ante page 923.

AN ACT regulating Damages in cases of Suits for Trespass done by Stock, so far as relates to Baltimore County.—1837, ch. 287.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, Damage must be claimed within ten days.
That from and after the first day of June, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, all damages claimed for trespass done by stock, shall be made within ten days after such trespass shall have been made.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, Summons persons to assess. That upon complaint being made to any acting justice of the peace, for trespass committed by horses, hogs, sheep, or any other kind of stock, he shall forthwith summons two well qualified, impartial and disinterested persons to examine into the extent of damages done, and value or assess the same, to the best of their judgments, and if it shall be found that the fence or fences of the complainant are Fences.