SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, or a major part of them, shall and they are hereby directed and empowered to remove the said overseer, and all other officers to be by them appointed in virtue of this act, at their discretion, and to choose others in their place and stead.

And meet
three times
a year, &c.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the said trustees, or the major part of them, shall and they are hereby directed and enjoined to meet at some convenient place in the said county three times in the year, in the first week in March, June and November, or oftener, if it should by them be deemed necessary, to make and ordain, by a majority of votes of such as may be present, all such good and wholesome ordinances, rules and by-laws, (the same being no way contrary to the laws of this state,) as they shall think convenient and necessary for the direction, government and support, of such alms and work-house; and also for the maintenance and employment of all such poor persons as shall be taken under their care, and of all vagrants, beggars, vagabonds and other offenders, that shall be committed thereto by virtue of this act; and which ordinances, rules and by-laws, shall be, from time to time, inviolably observed by all persons concerned, according to the tenor and effect thereof.

Overseer to keep a list,
&c.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the said overseer shall keep a fair and regular list of all poor, and of all beggars, vagrants, vagabonds and other offenders, who shall be committed to the said alms and work-house, and also fair and regular accounts in writing of all materials, and other things, coming to his hands as overseer aforesaid, and of all expenses and charges attending their maintenance and support, and of all moneys by him received for the sale of the produce of their labour, and otherwise, as overseer aforesaid, and shall lay the said lists and accounts before the trustees, or the major part of them, at their meetings at the times by this act directed, or oftener, if by them required.

And compel the poor to work, &c.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the said overseer may compel and oblige any of the said poor, beggars, vagrants and vagabonds, or other offenders, in his alms and work-house, if of sufficient ability, to work and labour, and the produce of their labour he is hereby directed and empowered to sell, and apply the money arising from such sale to their maintenance and support.

Disorderly
persons may be committed,
&c.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That upon complaint made, that any person, from his or her disorderly conduct, gives disturbance to his or her neighbourhood, and is likely to become chargeable to the said county, it shall and may be lawful for any one magistrate of the said county, if upon hearing the party he shall judge the complaint to be well founded, to com-
