

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That this act shall commence on the first Monday in April next, and continue and be in force for the term of two years from that time, and until the end of the next session of assembly that shall happen thereafter.

Commencement.

Since continued by the annual continuing acts.

AN additional SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act relating to the Public Roads in the several Counties therein mentioned.—1817, ch. 81.

WHEREAS, the present law relating to public roads in Charles and Calvert counties, has been found by experience to be inefficient, and the overseers appointed in pursuance of that act have heretofore been negligent in having the same carried into effect; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the levy courts in the counties aforesaid, at their last meeting in each year, to take notice of, and enter on their journal, the name or names of such overseer or overseers of roads in their respective counties, as shall neglect to comply with and pursue the directions of the eleventh section of the law to which this is a supplement, and such overseer or overseers, so neglecting to do the same, shall forfeit for each offence the sum of eight dollars, to be deducted by the levy court from their annual allowance; Provided nevertheless, that it shall be discretionary with said court to remit that forfeiture if application be made, and good cause shewn, at any time before the county levy for the ensuing year shall be assessed and proportioned.

Levy court to notice overseers who neglect their duty.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every overseer of roads in the counties aforesaid, hereafter appointed, shall be allowed eight dollars per annum in addition to the sum already allowed them by the thirteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement, to be made out and paid as heretofore.

Additional allowance to overseers

See 1832, ch. 223, sec. 5, by which their pay is graduated.

A further additional SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act relating to the Public Roads in the several Counties therein mentioned.—1822, ch. 123.

WHEREAS, the mode prescribed by the ninth section of the law to which this is a further additional supplement, for classing and arranging the male inhabitants above the age of eighteen years and under the age of fifty years; and also the sum of money imposed as a fine in the tenth section of said law, are found to be insufficient to bring labourers on the public roads in Calvert county for the repairs thereof, to the great disadvantage of its inhabitants; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the overseer of each

Overseer authorized.
