DROVERS.

AN ACT relating to Drovers, driving Cattle and Sheep, in and through Caroline County.—1835, ch. 281.

Preamble. WHEREAS, much trouble and loss has been experienced by different individuals, citizens of Caroline county, for the want of a law to compel drovers, driving cattle and sheep in and through said county, to have said cattle and sheep marked so as to enable any individual upon examining said drove, to take from said drove any unmarked cattle or sheep that they may discover in said drove; therefore,

Drover to mark. SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of July next, it shall be the duty of each and every drover or drovers, that shall drive any cattle or sheep in or through Caroline county, to have each and every such cattle and sheep so marked, with red paint or tar on their forehead, that said mark may be easily discovered, and on failure thereof, said drover or drovers shall forfeit one-half the value of such cattle and sheep as shall or may be found in his or their drove unmarked, by any individual of said county, and said individual is hereby authorized and empowered to take from said drove all the unmarked cattle or sheep, and them safe keep.

Forfeit those not marked.

To be advertised. SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the person or persons thus arresting and taking from such drove any cattle or sheep under the provisions of this act, provided, the same should not be his, her or their own, it shall be his, her or their duty to advertise said cattle or sheep, in some public newspaper, for not less than three weeks; And provided, that no owner shall then appear, then and in that case such cattle or sheep shall be set up and sold at public sale, one-half the net amount of such sale to go to the person or persons so detecting, and the other half to the levy court of Caroline county, to be applied to defraying the county charges.
