

Recovery. shall fail or refuse to pay the same at said period after demand is made in writing by the majority of the board of trustees of any such school for its proportion, the said trustees may in the name of the state, sue for and recover the same for the use of their school by action of debt, before a single justice of the peace, whatever may be the amount due, instituted jointly against said justice of the orphans court in their individual capacity, in which action the same proceedings may be had as in action for the recovery of debts under fifty dollars, before a single justice of the peace.

School in middle district. SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That instead of the located school in the middle district of said county, heretofore located by the commissioners under the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and forty-four, at a place called Driver's cross-roads, there shall be and is hereby established and located a school for said county at a place commonly called the south end of Carter's or White's lane, in said county, which school hereby located, shall be and is hereby declared to be entitled to all the rights and privileges of a located school, and may entitle itself to a distributive *proposition of said donation under said act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one, and this supplement, as if it were a school located under said act; and the said located school at Driver's cross-roads, shall, from the passage of this act, cease to be a located school under said act of eighteen hundred and thirty-one.

Certificates of investments. SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the orphans court of said county, to deposite with the register of wills for said county, all the certificates of stock or other evidences of investments made, or of funds on hand, relating either to the free or charity school funds, or the said donation from the state, which it shall be the duty of said register to preserve amongst the papers of his office, and to record in a well bound record book to be kept for that purpose, and that it shall also be the duty of said register to record in said book a full and fair account of all the proceedings of the orphans court in relation either to said fund or said donation, showing particularly the amount from time to time received by said court, for and on account of said fund or said donation, and the manner in which it has been disposed of or appropriated, and in which book the said register shall also record all the returns made by the commissioners appointed to locate schools, under the act of December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and forty-four; and also all the reports and returns of the commissioners of the free or charity school fund of said county to the orphans court, and all the reports and certificates of the trustees of the located schools in said county, and that said record book shall be one of the public records of said county, which shall be open to the in-

Report, &c.

Public roads.