

Oath required. this act, shall be valued and assessed at the full value thereof in ready money, any thing in any act to the contrary notwithstanding; And provided also, that every assessor shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take the following oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, viz: I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, that I will well and truly execute the duty of an assessor, and will faithfully, justly and impartially, value all the real and personal property which I may be appointed to value, according to the best of my skill and knowledge.

Appoint collector. SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners aforesaid, be, and they are hereby authorized and required to appoint, annually, a suitable person, who shall be a resident at the time of his appointment, in Carroll county, collector of the taxes in said county; and the said collector, before he shall act as such, shall give bond with security, for the faithful discharge of his duty, in the form and in the penalty now prescribed by law for the bonds of collectors in the several counties of this state; and the said collector shall be invested with all the powers, and subject to all the liabilities, with which the collectors of other counties are by law invested, and to which they are subject; and the said commissioners of the county, shall be, and they are hereby required to designate the manner in which the taxes to be collected by said collector, shall be appropriated.

Bond.

Powers vested.

How taxes are to be appropriated.

COMMISSIONERS OF TAX.

AN ACT to appoint Commissioners of the Tax for Carroll County. 1836, ch. 62.

One for each election district. SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act it shall be the duty of the governor and council, and they are hereby required annually to appoint nine of the best qualified persons, citizens of Carroll county, one resident of each election district, to be styled the commissioners of the tax for Carroll county, and the persons appointed commissioners as aforesaid, shall out of their own body elect a president, and in case of the death, resignation, refusal to act, or removal out of the district of either of the commissioners appointed as aforesaid, the governor and council shall at their next meeting supply the vacancy occasioned by such death, resignation, refusal or removal, as the case may be.

President, &c.

Vacancies.

Oath required.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That every commissioner appointed as aforesaid, shall before he enters upon the duties of his office, take and subscribe before some judge or justice of the peace, an oath or affirmation, that he will faithfully, diligently and impartially, exercise the powers and perform the duties of commissioners of the tax for Carroll county, as authorized and enjoined by law, according to the best of his skill