

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That in case any of the said assessors shall die, or shall neglect or refuse to act, or be rendered incapable of acting before the appointment is completed, the commissioners of said county shall appoint another or others to fill such vacancy or vacancies. Vacancy of assessor.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the several assessors appointed by virtue of this act, shall receive such compensation for their services, as the commissioners of said county shall think reasonable and proper, according to the duty which said assessors shall respectively perform, which said compensation shall be levied and collected as other county charges are. Their compensation.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, be, and they are hereby authorized to cause to be completed, the said assessment in said county, on or before the first day of July next, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. Period to complete.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That whatever extra duties the execution of this law may create or impose on the clerk to the commissioners, they may in their discretion allow him such an amount as they may deem an equivalent for such extra duties. Compensation to clerk.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That the commissioners shall at their first levy term after the final completion of the assessment, proceed to levy the taxation on the said new assessment, as the circumstances of the county may require. Levy hereafter.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

1827, ch. 145, 175; 1829, ch. 92, repealed by 1831, ch. 164.

AN ACT to provide for electing Commissioners for Cecil County, by districts, and prescribing their Powers and Duties, and repealing an Act and its Supplements therein mentioned.—1831, ch. 164.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the persons qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly in Cecil county, shall at the time and place for holding the election of delegates to the next general assembly of Maryland, and at the same time in every two years thereafter, vote by ballot and by districts for five persons residents of said districts, having the same qualifications as are or shall be required for said delegates, to be commissioners for Cecil county, to be chosen and elected in the following manner, that is to say: at the time of holding the election for delegates to the next general assembly of Maryland, the voters of the first district shall elect two persons residents of the first district; the voters of the second district shall elect one person a resident of the second district; the voters of the third district shall elect one person a resident of the third district, and the voters of the fourth district, shall elect one person a resident of the fourth district, to be county commissioners; at the second election for Election authorized.
Manner prescribed.