

one constable in the hundreds in each county, adjoining to the Bald Friar ferry, on the Susquehanna river, whose duty it shall be to examine every fish pot erected in the river, at least once a week in the season the young shad usually descend the river, and in case they shall find any pot or pots erected in the river, not constructed according to the provisions of the act to which this is a further supplement; or the supplement itself, or in case the bottom of any pot shall be covered with a basket, or any other device whatsoever, so as to close the opening that is directed by the supplement aforesaid to be left, whereby the young shad may be destroyed, they shall give information thereof to any justice of the peace in the county of Harford or Cecil, wherein the owner of such pot shall reside or be found, who shall issue his warrant, upon the information of said constable, or any other person, on oath or affirmation, to apprehend such owner, to be taken before some justice of the peace for the county, and compelled to enter into recognizance for his appearance at the next county court, there to be proceeded against by indictment, and upon conviction or confession thereof, to be fined by the court a sum not exceeding sixty dollars for every such offence, one-half to the constable aforesaid, or such other person as shall prosecute for the same, and the other half to be applied to the use of the county.

every fish
pot erected
in Susquehanna, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the constables so as aforesaid to be appointed, shall, for the discharge of the duties imposed on them by this act, to be verified upon oath, be allowed each a sum of money not exceeding sixteen dollars, in the discretion of the respective levy courts, to be levied, collected and paid over, as other county charges are levied, collected and paid.

Their
allowance.

JURORS AND LEVY COURT.

AN ACT for the better payment of the Jurors and Justices of the Levy Court in Cecil County.—1823, ch. 10.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every juror summoned on the regular panel of jurors to Cecil county courts, who shall reside more than eight miles from the place of holding the said court, shall, in addition to the per diem allowed him by law, be entitled to an allowance of ten cents for every mile more than eight miles, he shall travel in going to and returning from the court, likewise that each and every justice of the levy court, who shall reside more than eight miles from the place of holding their courts, shall, in addition to the per diem allowed him by law, be entitled to an allowance of ten cents for every mile, more than eight miles he shall travel in going to and returning from each court, to be levied, collected and paid, in the same manner and at the same time with his per diem allowance; Provided, that the said

Rate
allowed.