

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all fines imposed by this act shall be recovered in the name of the state, before a justice of the peace for the county aforesaid, one-half of which fine shall be appropriated to the informer, and the other half to the levy court of Cecil county, for the use of said county.

Fines recoverable and appropriated.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter one hundred and eighteen.—1834, ch. 64.

See 1832, ch. 118, ante page 1310.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of September next, all the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, shall be, and they are hereby extended to Cecil county.

Act extended to Cecil county.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the first day of September next, it shall be the duty of any owner or proprietor of any mill-dam over which any public road doth or shall pass, to cause to be placed and put upon and along both sides of such dam, at his own expense, good and sufficient posts and side railings, of the size, dimensions and description, mentioned and prescribed in the act to which this is a supplement, in regard to bridges, and the same, from time to time, to keep in good order and repair; and for a neglect or refusal so to do, such owner or proprietor, shall forfeit and pay such penalty as is prescribed by the act to which this is a supplement, in the case of bridges.

Post and railing at mill-dams.

Penalty.

AN ACT to prevent Horse-Racing in the Public Roads of Cecil County. 1837, ch. 282.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry citizens of Cecil county, that the town of Elkton, and adjacent neighbourhood, has been very much annoyed by the practice of running horse races in the public highways, thereby endangering the lives of travellers, obstructing the public roads, and collecting large assemblies of gamblers, and attended with drunkenness and all its attendant vices, destroying the morals and injuring the character of our community; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any person or persons whatsoever, to run any race or races with any horse, mare or gelding for any wager or wagers on the public roads or streets in said county.

Racing forbid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person or persons offending against the provisions of this act shall, on conviction before any justice of the peace for said county, be fined a sum of money not less than twenty dollars for each and every offence, besides costs of prosecution.

Fine for violating.