

perty of said county, at the usual time of making the county levy in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-six, such sum of money as the said levy court may deem sufficient to defray the expenses which have been or may be incurred by the attendance of jurymen at Frederick county court during the years eighteen hundred and twenty-six and eighteen hundred and twenty-seven.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said levy court to levy as aforesaid in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, and annually thereafter such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to pay the expenses which may be annually incurred by the attendance of jurymen at Frederick county court. Levy annually.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the sum or sums of money directed to be levied by this act, shall be collected by the collector of Frederick county as other county charges are now collected, and shall be accounted for by him, as herein after directed. Collector collect and account.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said collector to pay to the jurymen of said county immediately after the termination of each and every court, such sum of money as they may severally be entitled to receive for their attendance at said court as jurors. Pay jury-men.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That a certificate signed by the clerks of the county court expressing the number of days which any jurymen may have attended said court, and the sum due to him for such attendance shall be a sufficient authority to the said collector to pay the amount so specified in the said certificate. Certificates

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the said collector shall annually settle his account with the said levy court for the moneys which he may have collected under the provisions of this act, and pay over to the said levy court any surplus remaining in his hands, which surplus, if any, shall be applied to county uses. Annual settlement.

---

LEVY COURT.

1824, ch. 34; 1832, ch. 71, are merged in 1838, ch. 261.

---

AN ACT for the better payment of the members of the Levy Court of Frederick County.—1834, ch. 103.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every member of the levy court of Frederick county, who shall reside more than five miles from the place of holding said court, shall, in addition to the per diem allowed him by law, be entitled an allowance of twelve and a half cents for every mile exceeding the first five miles that his place of resi- Milage allowance.