

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this law shall not have any effect or operation or be in force unless a majority of the voters of Frederick county, at their next election for delegates to the general assembly, shall assent to it, which assent they may declare upon their ballots: those voting in favour of this law shall have on their ballots these words, 'for the primary school law,' and those voting against this law shall have on their ballots these words, 'against the primary school law;' and the judges of election shall keep an accurate account of the votes for and against the law.

This law submitted to the voters of the county.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That all acts inconsistent herewith, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act to provide for the Public Instruction of Youth in Primary Schools throughout this State, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and sixty-two.—1837, ch. 163.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all white children, in the county of Frederick, between the ages of five and eighteen years, inclusive, shall be entitled to instruction in primary schools, and to all the advantages contemplated by the original act, and the several supplements thereto, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Children from five to eighteen years old, entitled.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act to provide for the Public Instruction of Youth in Primary Schools throughout this State, passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and sixty-two, so far as the same relates to Frederick County. 1838, ch. 51.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That hereafter all free white male citizens, above the age of twenty-one years, having the same residence and qualifications that are prescribed by the general election laws of this state, to vote for members of the general assembly, shall be entitled to vote in all matters relating to the selection of sites for school-houses, and in the election of trustees in the respective school districts where they reside.

Qualification to vote at elections for trustees, selecting sites, &c.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all and every thing contained in the law to which this is a supplement, that is contrary to, or inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Repealing clause.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this bill shall not be construed to extend to any county in this state except the county of Frederick.

Confined to Frederick county.