

each of them; repairs of the public roads; the opening of new roads, designating the several sums allowed to individuals for lands over which roads shall have been laid out; with such other items as the said commissioners may judge will have a tendency to convey general information concerning the various transactions of the year.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the almshouse shall furnish the commissioners of the county with a general statement of all the disbursements and expenditures of said institution, from the year eighteen hundred and thirty-four inclusive; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to publish the same, agreeably to the provisions of the second section of this act.

Alms-house commissioners.

---

AN ACT to repeal an Act therein mentioned, and to give to all the voters of Harford County an equal voice in electing their County Commissioners.—1838, ch. 56.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act of assembly, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter two hundred and forty-six, entitled, an additional supplement to an act, entitled, an act to provide for electing commissioners for Harford county, and prescribing their powers and duties, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter eighty-one, shall cease to be in force from and after the twenty-fifth day of September, eighteen hundred and forty, the said additional supplement being hereby declared to be then and thenceforth abrogated and repealed.

Act of 1836,
ch. 246 repealed from and after 25th Sep-1840.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That a new election for commissioners for Harford county shall take place on the day of holding the annual general election in October, eighteen hundred and forty, any thing contained in any law then existing to the contrary notwithstanding.

Commissioners to be elected October, 1840.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That from and after the first day of April next, it shall be the duty of the clerk to the county commissioners of Harford county to give his personal attendance at the court-house, during the usual hours of business, every Tuesday, during the time of his continuing to hold said office of clerk; and in case any person holding said office of clerk shall fail or neglect to attend as aforesaid, unless disabled by sickness or prevented by some other circumstance beyond his control, his said office shall thereupon be deemed to be vacated; and the county commissioners shall, at their next meeting thereafter, appoint some other person in his place.

Clerk to attend.

Case of failing to.

---

COUNTY COURT.

AN ACT relating to the Removal of Causes for Trial, within the Sixth District.—1820, ch. 158.

See ante page 731.