

said overseer shall, at the expiration of each and every year, return to the said trustees on oath, (or affirmation,) a fair and regular account in writing, of all the stock, farming utensils, and other things now remaining in his hands, or which may come to his hands aforesaid, together with a statement of the crop, and other articles, made on the estate of the said alms-house, and an account of all the expenses and charges attending the maintenance and support of the poor in said alms-house, and of all moneys received by him for the sales of the produce of their labour, and otherwise, which said statements and accounts the trustees are hereby directed to lay before the commissioners at their said annual meeting.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all the meetings of the said trustees for the poor, necessary to be held for carrying into effect the provisions of this act, or of the original act to which this is supplementary, shall be held at the alms-house in the said county, except such meetings as may be necessary for the settlement and passing their accounts with the commissioners.

Meetings.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the sheriff shall be allowed thirty-eight and a half-cents for the delivery of each of the said certificates to the persons so appointed, all of which charges and allowances are to be levied, collected and paid over, as other county charges are.

Allowance to sheriff for delivery of certificates.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That from and after the organization of this institution, under the provisions of this act, it shall not be lawful for any trustee to furnish, on his own account, supplies of any description for the use of the alms-house, and if any trustee shall, in violation of this act, furnish supplies to said institution, he shall, upon sufficient evidence of the fact being offered to the commissioners of the county aforesaid, forfeit for the use and benefit of the institution, whatever supplies he may have so furnished.

Penalty on trustees furnishing supplies.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the trustees appointed by virtue of this act, shall meet four times a year, to wit, the second Monday in June, October, January and April, or oftener if need requires, at their discretion, and for every day they serve in discharge of their duties under the provisions of this act, the said trustees shall each receive for their services the same as heretofore been allowed agreeable to the provisions of the original act to which this is a supplementary act, to be levied on the county, and paid to them by the collector.

To meet four times a year.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That any thing in the said original act to which this is a supplementary act, as relates to Harford county, which is repugnant to, or inconsistent with, the provisions of this act, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal.