

thereafter, shall apportion the sum of money levied as aforesaid in such proportion as they shall think proper, and have such sum expressed in the several warrants issued as aforesaid, and no overseer shall be responsible or punishable for any neglect of the said public roads, after expending such proportion as expressed in his warrant; and the said overseers shall render a true and perfect account, on oath or affirmation, of all persons employed by him respectively to labour on the said public roads, and of the wages allowed, and the number of days they attended respectively in discharging of the said trust, and other expenses; and the said justices, or a majority of them present, at their levy court aforesaid, having examined and approved of the same, shall draw their order on the collector, requiring him to settle and pay, by discount for public taxes or otherways, (as the case may be,) to every person mentioned in such order, the sum due him, and such collector shall be allowed such order or orders in his settlement with the said court; and if any surplus shall remain of the assessment for the public roads aforesaid, after allowing the account produced by the overseers aforesaid for moneys by them expended, such remainder shall be applied to the use of the county.

the money
levied, &c.

SEC. 9. Appoints commissioners to locate certain roads.

SEC. 10, 11, 12, 13. Apply to particular roads.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the justices aforesaid may and shall, at their levy court annually, call on the collector for the settlement of all moneys levied and assessed for the use of the county aforesaid, and in case of neglect or refusal of the said collector, immediately to commence suit for the recovery thereof, in which no appeal or writ of error shall be had or brought, nor more than one imparlance shall be allowed.

Justices to call on the collector, &c.

SEC. 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20. Apply to particular roads.

A SUPPLEMENT to an ACT, entitled, an Act to straighten and amend the Public Roads in Harford County, and for other purposes.—1793, ch. 67.

WHEREAS, the commissioners appointed by the act to which this is a supplement, did not lay out, survey, mark and bound, the several public roads in the said act mentioned, but left many of the same incomplete, by reason of their powers ceasing by law before they could effectuate the same; And whereas, also a very considerable expense has been already incurred, which expense will be totally lost unless relief be had in the premises; therefore,

Preamble.

SEC. 2. Applies to particular roads.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the overseers of the roads, hereafter to be appointed in said county, shall have power to draw orders on the collector of said county in favour of those persons who may work on the roads in their respective dis-

Overseers to draw orders, &c.