

or if in recess, of their clerk, to make out, within two months from the reception of said report, an alphabetical list of all the persons who possess or may be entitled to taxable property in each school division, with the aggregate assessment of the property of each individual, according to the county assessment made in that or the preceding year, and transmit the said lists to the said trustees within the said period, under the penalty of two hundred dollars for every neglect or refusal, to be recovered by presentment or indictment of a grand jury. •

Alphabetical list.

Penalty for neglect.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the tax to be laid in the several school districts shall extend to all the taxable property in said districts, and that the trustees shall from time to time, when required, furnish the commissioners of the tax or their clerk, such information as they may possess or acquire, to enable them to perform the duties enjoined by the second section of this act; but that nothing in this act contained shall be so construed, as to permit or authorize any non-resident to vote in any other school district than that in which he may bona fide reside at the time any meeting may be held.

Tax, how to be levied.

Non-residents.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That it shall be incumbent on any sheriff or county collector, in the event of his being selected or appointed a collector for any or all of the school districts, to accept of the appointment, or forfeit for each refusal the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered in the manner provided in the second section, and to pay over to the person or persons authorized to receive the same, the several sums of money to be by him collected, (first deducting the usual fees for his services,) within six months from the time the assessment lists shall be placed in his hands for collection, and that the collectors of the school tax shall have the same powers of execution, sale and conveyance, to enforce the payment of taxes as those with which the collector of the county tax is or may be invested.

Duty of sheriffs, &c. to collect.

Under penalty.

Powers of collectors.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the report of the county clerk, as required in the twenty-second section of the act to which this is a supplement, shall be made to the treasurer of the western shore, on or before the last Monday in December annually, under the penalty of one hundred dollars for every neglect, to be recovered in the mode mentioned in the second section, and that it shall be the duty of the said treasurer to report to the legislature by the twentieth day of January in each year, an abstract or synopsis of all the reports he may have received from the said clerk.

Report required of county clerk.

Penalty for neglect.

Report of treasurer.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the levy court of said county be authorized and required to levy on the assessable property in said county, a reasonable per diem for the commissioners

Compensation for laying off districts.