

uncollected and available, the trustees of said district shall consider it a part of the revenue for the succeeding year, and a correspondent deduction in that year's assessment, for the support of such district school, shall be made.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all white male taxable inhabitants, resident in the county, and owning real or personal taxable property in more school districts than one, shall be permitted to vote in every school district, in every such district as a resident taxable inhabitant; Provided, that in case of personal property, it shall not have been removed into any such school district within one month next preceding such election; And provided, that nothing in this section contained shall exclude any qualified voter from the exercise of his suffrage, who shall, at any period, bona fide remove into any school district.

Right of voting.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the trustees of the several school districts shall keep accurate accounts of their proceedings, and report the same to the taxable inhabitants of said school district at their stated annual meeting, or at any other meeting called for that purpose; and shall keep true and perfect accounts against the collector of every such school district, of the sums authorized and levied, to be collected by them, and of all sums paid into their hands, and shall give them credit for all sums properly paid by them, for commissions allowed to such collectors, and for all sums as remain uncollected after due diligence.

Trustees to account.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That wherever school districts have not been located as directed by the act of eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and sixty-two, and the act of eighteen hundred and thirty-three, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and no tax has been laid or collected, or wherever such location has been made and no tax laid or collected, there shall not be collected for the purposes of purchasing a site and school-house, and erecting such school-house and furnishing books, fuel, stationery, and furniture, the first year, more than three hundred dollars, and the tax of one hundred and fifty dollars, provided by this act for repairing school-houses and so forth, shall not be levied nor collected the same year that the above tax, for the purchase of a site, school-house, or erecting the same, and so forth, and that in any district, where the collection of taxes has been only partially made, they may be completed by the old or new trustees or collectors, with all the authority and means provided by this or any other act.

Tax on first organizing
school
district.

Taxes
partially collected.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the proceedings of any meeting, to be called by the commissioners and inspectors, or by the trustees or taxable inhabitants, shall not be set aside or

Informalities in notice not to vitiate.