SEC. 2, 3, 4. Repealed by 1830, ch. 108, sec. 3.

A SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act to provide for the payment of the Jurors in Prince George's County, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty, chapter sixty-three.—1830, ch. 108.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Prince George's county, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to cause any money which may be hereafter levied and collected by authority of the first section of the act to which this is a supplement, to be deposited to their credit in the Farmers' Bank of Maryland at Annapolis, or in any bank in the District of Columbia that they may think proper to select, for the purpose of paying the jurors of said county, or the said levy court may, if they should deem it more conducive to public convenience, direct and require the collector of the county tax to pay the jurors of said county, out of the money so levied and collected, such sum as may be due them respectively.

Money levied to be deposited.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That a certificate signed by the clerk of Prince George's county court, expressing the number of days which the jurymen may have attended, and the sum due to him for such attendance, shall be sufficient authority to the cashier of the bank in which the said money may be deposited, or the collector of the tax of said county, as the case may be, to pay the amount so specified in the said certificate.

Certificate.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the second, third and fourth sections of the act to which this is a supplement, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Repeal.
