ment and
duties of
clerk.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the levy court for Prince George's county shall, on the second Monday in March next, appoint a fit and proper person, who shall transact all the business, and discharge all the duties now appertaining to the several and respective offices of clerk of the levy court and commissioners of the tax, in the same manner as the clerk of Prince George's county court, and the clerk of the commissioners of the tax for said county, are now by law severally authorized and required to transact the same; and the person so appointed shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, execute a bond to the state of Maryland, to be approved of by the said levy court, in the penalty of one thousand dollars, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the several and respective duties hereby imposed, which bond shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the county court of said county, and a copy thereof, under the seal of the court, shall be as sufficient evidence as the original; and the clerk when appointed, shall take and subscribe the following oath, or affirmation, as the case may be, to wit: I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, that as clerk to the levy court of Prince George's county, I will honestly and faithfully, to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the duties of said office, without favour, affection, or prejudice, so help me God; which oath or affirmation, any one of the said levy court is hereby authorized to administer; and the said clerk shall be subject to the same penalties and forfeitures for non-performance or neglect of official duty, as are prescribed by the existing laws in relation as well to the several matters and things which the clerk of the county court of said county is legally directed and required to perform, under the authority of the levy court, as likewise to those which appertain to the office of the present clerk of the commissioners of the aforesaid county.
