

charges as he may incur from the imprisonment of any person or persons in the jail of said county; Provided always, that the said levy court shall not be authorized to levy such sum or sums until they are fully satisfied that such person or persons is or are entirely unable to discharge and pay the same.

SEC. 2. Relates only to the account of John S. Blake.

Levy for fuel:

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the levy court aforesaid be, and they are hereby authorized and directed to levy such sum of money annually on the county aforesaid, as in their judgment may be sufficient to furnish the jail of said county with fuel; Provided, that said fuel shall be used solely for the comfort and benefit of the prisoners in said jail, together with such sum as may be deemed by said court necessary for the keeping in repair said jail and the appurtenances thereunto belonging.

Blacksmith;
levy.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the court aforesaid are hereby empowered to employ a blacksmith by the year, and annually thereafter, to do the necessary iron work at the jail in said county, if in their opinion it would add to the interest of said county to thus employ such workman, and they are further authorized to levy such sum of money as they may agree to allow him, on the assessable property of the county aforesaid.

JURORS.

AN ACT to fix the compensation of Jurors in Queen Anne's County.
1829, ch. 131.

Compensation.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That each and every juror hereafter to be summoned on the regular panel of jurors to Queen Anne's county court, shall be entitled to receive for each day which he shall attend as a juror, the sum of one dollar and fifty cents, and in addition thereto, an allowance of six and a quarter cents per mile, for every mile that his place of residence shall be distant from the place of holding the county court; and to be levied, collected, and paid, in the same manner, and at the same time, with his per diem allowance; and he shall be entitled to receive mileage for each day such juror shall attend the court.

Explanatory.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in the foregoing section shall be construed to allow any juror mileage in returning to his residence, during the time he shall attend said county court.

AN ACT to provide for the more speedy payment of Jurors in Queen Anne's County.—1831, ch. 243.

Levy in advance directed.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be lawful for the justices of the levy court of Queen Anne's county, and they are hereby authorized and required to levy, annually,