

and possession, all the property, real or personal, of any person who has been admitted, or shall hereafter be admitted, into the alms and work-house of the said county, and the same to possess, occupy and use, and the profits thereof to apply to the maintenance and support of the poor of Queen Anne's county, which authority and power shall remain with the said trustees over such property, and the profits thereof, as long as the owner of the same shall continue in the said alms and work-house.

AN ACT relating to Indigent Out-Pensioners in Queen Anne's County. 1837, ch. 201.

Authority to apply
$1,000.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of the poor of Queen Anne's county, be, and they are hereby authorized to expend for the relief of such persons as the said trustees shall judge proper to place on the list of indigent out-pensioners of said county, the sum of one thousand dollars, instead of the sum of six hundred dollars heretofore limited therefor by law.

Repealing clause.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

ROADS.

AN ACT relating to the Public Roads in Queen Anne's County.—1799, ch. 70.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the present laws relating to the public roads in Queen Anne's county are in part inadequate to the purposes for which they were intended; therefore,

Justices to levy money,
&c.

SEC. 2. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the justices of the levy court for Queen Anne's county, or a majority of them, at their annual meeting at the time for holding their levy court at the court-house in Centreville, shall levy, by equal assessment, on the assessable property within the said county, a sum of money not exceeding three shillings on every hundred pounds of assessable property, to be collected as other county taxes, and paid to the justices of the levy court, or to their order, and shall be applied towards straightening, amending and keeping in repair, the public roads in the said county; and the said justices, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to appropriate the funds arising from the said tax to the public roads in the said county, and shall apportion the same in just proportions among all the public roads of the said county, regarding the situation and quantity of labour necessary for the improvement of such roads.