SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That in erecting or repairing a school-house in any primary school district of said county, according to the act passed December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter one hundred and sixty-two, the sum to be raised for that purpose, shall be levied on all the taxable property of said district, whether belonging to residents of the same or non-residents.

AN ACT to explain the second section of the Act, entitled, an Act to provide for the support of Schools in Queen Anne's County, and to withdraw the Funds from the Centreville Academy.—1830, ch. 73.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it appears to this general assembly by the votes and proceedings of the last session of the legislature, that the second section contained in the act to provide for the support of schools in Queen Anne's county, and to withdraw the funds from the Centreville academy, was stricken out, but the same was retained by mistake in the engrossment of the bill by the clerk, without noticing the amendment: And whereas, the governor signed and sealed the bill as prescribed by the constitution, and is now published among the laws of the last session with the section stricken out contained therein; to remedy which mistake,

Section to have no
force.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the second section contained in the said printed law shall have no force or effect whatever; and the treasurer of the western shore be and he is hereby directed, to pay to the trustees of the Centreville academy, in Queen Anne's county, the donation in the same manner as before the passage of the said act.
