

to such special meetings as may be called for that or any other purpose ; and shall keep an account against the collector, for the sums authorized to be collected, and for other sums paid into his hands, and shall give him credit for the sums legally paid by him, also, for his legal commissions, and for such taxes as cannot be collected by legal steps and proper diligence.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the said collector shall have the keeping of all the funds of said school, subject to the written order of a majority of the trustees, drawn in favour of persons having claims against said school ; and he shall report to said trustees, whenever required, the amount of funds in his hands, and a full statement of his accounts, and if at the end of the year an unappropriated balance should remain in his hands, the trustees shall consider it as part of the revenue of the succeeding year, and make a correspondent reduction in that year's taxes. Treasurer's accounts,
&c.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That all the white children of said district shall have the privilege of being taught in said school free of any charge for tuition ; Provided, that children living in said district having property elsewhere, not taxed for the support of schools, and none in said district, or whose parents have property thus situated, shall be subject to a charge for tuition, if in the opinion of the trustees, such children or their parents, are able to pay such charge ; Provided also, that no scholars are to be furnished at the expense of the district, with books or stationery, except such as the trustees think unable to furnish themselves : And also provided, that the trustees shall have power to expel any scholar from said school, for continued and extraordinary misbehaviour. Free and pay scholars

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the trustees to make a report to the commissioners of the school fund of Queen Anne's county, before the tenth day December every year, in which report shall be stated the sums received from different sources, the amount expended, the number of children taught in said school, and as far as can be ascertained, the whole number of white children in said district between the ages of six and sixteen years. Trustees to account.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act, shall be extended to any primary school district of said county, whenever a majority of the taxable male inhabitants of such district shall determine upon adopting the same ; and in that case, the trustees of such district shall have power to levy a sufficient sum for building or repairing a school-house as occasion may require ; and when the division line between the two primary school districts, runs through any tract of land, the whole of said tract shall be taxed for the use of the district in which the principal dwelling-house on said tract is situated. Other districts provided for.