

SURVEYORS.

AN ACT relating to the Compensation of the Surveyor of Queen Anne's County.—1831, ch. 236.

Merged in 1833, ch. 65.

AN ACT relating to Surveyor of Queen Anne's County.—1833, ch. 21.
See title 'County Court,' ante page 2092.

AN ACT to enlarge the duties of the Surveyor of Queen Anne's County.
1833, ch. 65.

WHEREAS, the legal duties of the surveyor of Queen Anne's county, have become so diminished, that no person will accept the said office, and it is believed that duties may be added thereto, that will make it an office worth the attention of a citizen capable of filling the same. Preamble.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all surveying of land in Queen Anne's county, done by authority of law, shall be performed by the surveyor of the county, and his deputies, except excluded by positive enactments, or in case where he has a personal interest in the survey; and to this end, it is hereby enacted, that all warrants, writs and orders, under which lands are to be surveyed in the said county, issued from the courts of the said county, shall be directed to the said county surveyor and executed by him, and all locations and surveys of land in the said county, that shall be made in virtue of commissions, writs, and process from the said courts, shall be made by the said county surveyor, whose plots and certificates of such lands returned by him, shall be as valid and effectual, as if the duty performed had originally been a duty of his said office. County surveyor to be employed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said surveyor's charges for such services, shall be regulated by the fee bill, and laws of this state. Fees.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled, an act relating to the compensation of the surveyor of Queen Anne's county, passed on the eighth day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, be and the same is hereby repealed. Repeal.