

CLERK OF COUNTY COURT.

AN ACT to regulate the Sale of Ardent Spirits, within the Village of Salisbury, in Somerset and Worcester Counties.—1834, ch. 119.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be lawful for the clerk of Somerset county court, or the clerk of Worcester county court, to issue a license to any person or persons to sell ardent spirits, at any place within the village of Salisbury, in the counties of Somerset and Worcester, or within one and a half miles of said village, without an order in writing from one of the judges of the county court of Somerset or Worcester county, who is hereby authorized to grant such order, if he shall be satisfied from the representation of twelve or more respectable inhabitants of said village, of the necessity and propriety of granting such license, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Restricting licenses.

COUNTY COURT.

A further SUPPLEMENT to the ACT, entitled, an Act for the better regulation of Chancery Proceedings, in certain cases.—1829, ch. 142.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, all and singular the powers, authorities and jurisdictions which Somerset county court, as a court of equity, can exercise at the regular terms of said county court, may be exercised by either of the associate judges of said court who may attend, and when he shall attend at the court-house of said county, on the days between the several sessions of said court, and appointed by said court, agreeably to the provisions of the act of assembly, entitled, a further supplement to an act, entitled an act for the better regulation of chancery proceedings in certain cases, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter twenty-seven, and that all and every kind of process which may issue from said court on the equity side thereof, may be made returnable to the said intermediate terms, or on the intermediate days as aforesaid.

Cases in equity to be tried.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of said county to attend the said judge on the said days, or intermediate terms, and to make due entry of all such matters and things, as shall or may be ordered or directed by the said judge.

Clerk to attend.

AN ACT to change the time of holding the November term of Somerset County Court.—1835, ch. 179.

Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act the county court for Somerset county, shall be held on the third Monday in May,

Time changed.