

peace, and applied towards amending the causeways and wharves aforesaid.

Justices to call on the collector, &c.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That the justices of the levy court aforesaid may and shall call upon the collector or collectors for all moneys levied and assessed for the use of repairing the said causeways and wharves.

Top of dams to be made twelve feet wide, &c.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That where any person or persons have built, or shall build, in Somerset county, a mill or mills on any branch or run where any public or main road crossed, or shall cross, and have erected, or shall erect, any dam for such mill or mills, such person or persons, or the owner, possessor or occupier, of such mills or mills, shall and they are hereby obliged to make the top of the said dam twelve feet wide at the least, and make good and substantial bridges over the waste and race of the said mills and dams, and the same keep in good repair; and where any mill hereafter to be erected shall obstruct any public road, and it shall be thought convenient by the justices of the levy court of said county where such mill is so erected, that the said public road shall pass below the dam of the said mill, or where such public road now passes below the dam of any such mill or mills, that then and in every such case the owner or owners, possessor or occupier, of such mill or mills, shall and they are hereby required to raise and make a good and sufficient causeway across the branch or run on which the said mill is built, twelve feet wide at the least, and make a good and substantial bridge over the tail of the said mill, and the same keep in good repair; and if the owner or owners, possessor or occupier, of any such mill or mills, shall refuse or neglect to do what is by this act required, and shall be thereof legally convicted, he, she or they, shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding thirty dollars for each neglect or offence; Provided, that such person or persons, owner or owners, possessor or occupier, of such mill or mills, shall not be obliged to work upon, or send any of their labourers or hands who shall reside in the precinct of such public road to work on any part of such road, except such milldam, causeway, race and waste, as aforesaid.

Persons building mills to make good bridges, &c.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That where any person or persons have built, or shall hereafter build or erect, any mill in Somerset county, on any branch or run below the places where public or main roads did or shall cross such branch or run, and by the building and erecting of such mill, or dam for the same, the public or main road which crossed, or shall cross, the branch or run as aforesaid, is or shall be any way affected or injured, or the passage therein any way obstructed or rendered difficult or incommodious, such person or persons, or the owner, possessor or occupier, of such mill or mills,