

closing a road, they shall appoint three persons of their own body to make the examination, and the persons so appointed, or a majority of them, shall after giving the notice required by the act, to which this is a supplement, proceed to the examination of the same, and report their proceedings to the commissioners in the same manner as examiners were heretofore required to report, and shall be allowed the same compensation as examiners now are allowed.

Appeal provided.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That whenever any person or persons shall deem themselves aggrieved, by the decision of the commissioners in the case now pending, or that may hereafter come before them, he, she or they, shall have the right of entering an appeal to the county court, at any time within sixty days from the time of such decision by the commissioners, and the case shall be determined by the judges thereof, or by a jury, at the option of either party.

Repeal.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all such parts of the act and the supplement thereto, to which this is a further supplement, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

---

SCHOOLS.

1816, ch. 256, ante page 654, distributes the fund.

---

AN ACT concerning the School Fund in Washington County.—1821, ch. 215.

Trustees of school fund.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Washington county, be, and they are hereby authorized and required, at their first meeting after the county is laid off into seven election districts, and annually on the first Monday in May thereafter, to appoint five upright and intelligent men for each election district, residents thereof, in said county, who shall constitute a board of trustees for the management of the school fund for the said districts respectively.

Interest to be apportioned; poor children to be educated

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the interest of the school fund of said county shall be annually apportioned by the levy court amongst the said election districts, in proportion to the population of each, and paid over to the presidents of the boards of trustees for the several election districts; and it shall be the duty of the presidents of the boards of trustees respectively, to call a meeting of the several boards as soon as convenient after the appointment of trustees are made, for the purpose of selecting proper objects throughout their districts for the application of the said fund; and the several trustees of each board respectively, shall subscribe and send such poor child or children so selected, to the nearest and best school in their respective neighbourhoods for instruction, proportioning the number of children to the amount of funds under their