

nally remain in the treasury, of the sum of three thousand five hundred dollars, appropriated by the law to which this is a supplement, for the education of the deaf and dumb, shall be applied to the education of such indigent blind children, in the manner pointed out in the first section of the said act of eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, chapter one hundred and seventy-three, and that the governor shall be, and he is hereby authorized to draw on the same accordingly.

AN ACT, entitled, a further additional Supplement to an Act, entitled, an Act for the preservation of Wild Fowl in the Potomac River and its tributary streams, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-two, chapter one hundred and thirty-four.—1839, ch. 275.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in all cases hereafter when any credible white person shall make affidavit in substance that he has good reason to suspect and does believe that some person or persons are engaged in violating the laws to which this is a further supplement, it shall be the duty of any justice of the peace before whom such affidavit is made, to issue his warrant directed to any constable or the sheriff of the county, commanding him to arrest and have before him or some other justice of the peace of the state of Maryland, any person or persons who may be found violating the laws of the state of Maryland, for the preservation of wild fowl in the Potomac river and its tributary streams, or who from circumstances or information may be suspected by the said officer of intending to violate, or having violated said laws, and also to take into possession all vessels, boats, guns and apparatus, powder and shot, which may be found in possession of the person or persons so seized, and to this purpose commanding said officer to summon if need, a sufficient number of able-bodied inhabitants of the county to aid in carrying out such warrant.

Justices to issue warrants to arrest persons suspected of violating the law.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of any officer to whom such warrant may be directed, to execute the same with all practicable speed, and in default thereof from neglect or remissness, he shall forfeit for each and every failure to execute such warrant, the sum of fifty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace for the state of Maryland, in the name of the said state, one-half for the use of the informer and the other half for the use of the county.

Officer to execute writ with all speed, or forfeit.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That for every offence committed against the provisions of this law, or of the existing laws for the preservation of wild fowl in the Potomac river and its tributary streams, the justice of the peace before whom such offender or offenders may be brought, shall upon conviction on proof of a violation of the laws, entitled, an act for the preservation of wild fowl in the Potomac river and its tributary Penalty.