Inspector not to deal in lime.

Below third quality

rels, hogsheads and larger casks, shall be marked with a legible mark, designating the quantity and quality of lime it contains, and for every barrel so marked the inspector shall receive six, and for every hogshead or other cask so marked he shall receive twelve cents for his compensation; Provided however, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to compel the manufacturer of lime to have such lime measured and inspected when the same has been bought for agricultural purposes, unless where the purchaser in such case shall require an inspection.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That any person buying or selling lime not measured and inspected as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay ten dollars for every offence.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That if any wagoner, driver, owner or agent, shall make use of any device in the loading his wagon or other carriage, or in filling barrels, hogsheads or other casks, or suffer any other person to do so with a view of deceiving the inspector and measurer in quantity thereof, or shall after obtaining a certificate suffer any part of his load to be disposed of or diminished, and then sell or offer to sell the remainder for the quantity mentioned in his certificate, or shall exchange his certificate for any other of a greater quantity or better quality, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, ten dollars.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That when any person bringing lime to the city of Baltimore for sale, in any wagon or other carriage of burden, shall have delivered and discharged the same, and it shall appear to the buyer or receiver, or any other person or persons, that some fraud or device has been used in the loading or unloading thereof, not known to the inspector, he, she or they, may complain to the inspector, who is hereby authorized and required forthwith, or as soon as practicable, to examine into the same, and should the inspector be satisfied that his first certificate was not correct, then in that case he shall revoke and annul the first certificate, and issue and deliver a new one instead thereof, expressing the just quality and quantity, and should it appear that fraud was intended, or any device used with an intention to deceive the inspector, then in that case the owner or driver or agent of the said lime, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, ten dollars.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That no inspector of lime shall either directly or indirectly be concerned in the purchase or sale of any articles so inspected by him, more than for his own use, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offence.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That all lime made in or brought to the city of Baltimore for sale, or to be used therein, whether
