

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the sum or sums of money directed to be levied by virtue of this act, shall be collected by the collectors of Baltimore county, as other county charges are now collected, and it shall be the duty of the said collectors of said county, to pay the same over to the treasurer of said county. Collection.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the per diem of each witness shall be one dollar for each day they shall be in attendance at said court, and a certificate signed by the clerk of the county court, shewing the number of days which any witness may have attended said court, shall be sufficient authority to the treasurer of said county, to pay the amount so specified in the said certificate. Witnesses $1 per diem.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, shall be construed to deprive Baltimore county court of the discretionary power of ordering the costs of any case, including the said attendance of state witnesses, to be paid by the defendant, or to disallow any witness's attendance. Discretionary power
of court.

AN ACT to authorize and require the Commissioners of Carroll County to pay over to Baltimore County certain moneys therein mentioned.—1839, ch. 188.

WHEREAS, by the creation of Carroll county out of a part of Baltimore and Frederick counties, the assessable property of Baltimore county has been reduced; And whereas, by an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and eighty-one, the commissioners of Baltimore county were required to levy upon the assessable property of said county twelve hundred and ninety-seven dollars and eighty-six cents to carry into effect the provisions of the act, entitled, an act relating to the people of colour in this state, and it being just and right that the part levied upon Baltimore county for the purpose aforesaid, should be reduced in proportion to the reduction of the assessable property of the county by the erection of Carroll county aforesaid; And whereas, the commissioners of Baltimore county, has paid over to the treasurer of the western shore for eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, the whole amount of twelve hundred and ninety-seven dollars and eighty-six cents, instead of one thousand and seventy-five dollars, which is the sum now paid by Baltimore county since a portion of her territory has been reduced in Carroll county; therefore, it is right and proper that Carroll county should refund to Baltimore county the sum of two hundred and twenty-two dollars and eighty-six cents; therefore,

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the commissioners of the levy court, as they may be, of Carroll county, and they are directed and hereby required to levy upon the assessable property of said $222 86
levied and paid to Baltimore county.