

and form provided in the third section of the supplement to an act, to which this act is an additional supplement.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That it is the intention of this act, that the benefit of the primary schools in the aforesaid county of Dorchester, shall be extended to all white children over six years of age, and that all male adults shall also be permitted to receive instruction in said schools; Provided always, that each and every such adult desiring the benefit of said schools, shall first obtain the permission of the commissioners of the district to which they belong, and shall agree to pay such sum for tuition, as shall be determined upon by the said school commissioners, and the money so required to be paid, shall, when collected, be applied to the benefit of said school.

Who to have benefit
of schools.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That all persons privileged under this act to receive instructions at the primary schools in Dorchester county aforesaid, when they are so located in the school district in which they belong as to make it more convenient for them to go to the adjoining school district, be, and they are hereby authorized to do so; Provided always, that the scholar or scholars, desiring to avail him, her or their selves of the benefit of this proviso, shall first obtain the consent of the school commissioners of the district in which he, she or they wish to be instructed.

Scholars
may attend school most convenient.

Proviso.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the five school commissioners appointed for each election district, by the commissioners of the tax of the said county of Dorchester, as provided in sec. 4 of this supplement to an act to which this is an additional supplement, be, and they are hereby authorized to appoint three or more auxiliaries for each school in said district, for the purposes of superintending said school or schools.

Auxiliary school commissioners.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the treasurer of the school fund appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, by the commissioners of the tax of said county of Dorchester, shall perform all the duties assigned him under the 2d section of the supplement to the act to which this is an additional supplement, and shall receive as compensation for his services, one and a half per cent. on all sums collected and disbursed by him for the benefit of said schools.

Duties and
compensation of treasurer of school fund.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the commissioners for each school district in the county aforesaid, be, and they are hereby authorized to employ, and to contract for the payment of a teacher or teachers, of the said school or schools, in said district or districts, in the manner provided in the fourth section of the supplement to the act to which this act is an additional supplement; Provided always, that in no instance shall they,

Commissioners to contract
with teachers.