

AN ACT to provide for the building a Court-house in Frederick County.
1839, ch. 288.

New courthouse to be built.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Frederick county, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, if in their discretion they deem it expedient, to build on the site of the present court-house in Fredericktown, in Frederick county, a new court-house, a clerk's office, a register's office, a sheriff's office, a surveyor's office, and an office for the said levy court, in such manner and style, and upon such plan as they may elect; and in such building to use the materials of the present court-house, the old clerk's or fire-proof office, and the office of register of wills in said county; and for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the said buildings, the said levy court are authorized and empowered to borrow any sum of money not exceeding ten thousand dollars, at legal interest, and to secure the repayment of the same to pledge the faith and property of the county aforesaid.

Levy court
may borrow $10,000.

Levy to be made.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the said levy court, for the purpose of paying the said sum of money so to be borrowed as aforesaid, are hereby authorized and empowered to levy upon the assessable property of Frederick county, such sum of money as may be sufficient to pay the sum of money that may be borrowed under the provision of this act, and the interest thereon; Provided however, that not more than two thousand dollars thereof shall be levied in any one year.

Levy court
to provide rooms.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the said levy court be, and hereby are authorized and required to procure and provide at the county charge, a suitable house to hold court in, a suitable house for the clerk's office, a suitable house for the office of register of wills, sheriff's office and surveyor's office, until the new court-house and the said offices shall be finished and fit for use; and the clerk of Frederick county, and the register of wills, are hereby directed and authorized to remove all their papers, records and record books into such house for the time aforesaid.

HARFORD COUNTY.

AN ACT relating to Public Landings in Harford County.—1839, ch. 32.

Commissioners to establish public landings.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the commissioners of Harford county shall have and exercise the same power to establish public landings on the tide water canal, which they now have or can exercise to open or lay out public roads; and that upon the petition in writing of one or