

	Page.
on the death of any party to a suit—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 14, sec. 4, . . . . .	408
A guardian may be appointed before an account of the administration is passed—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 12, sec. 1, . . . . .	403
The court may direct the delivery of a legacy or distributive share to such guardian—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 12, sec. 5, . . . . .	404
Penalty on administrator's refusing to comply with such order—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 12, sec. 5, . . . . .	404
The husband need not be administrator of his deceased wife to entitle himself to her choses in action—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 5, sec. 8, . . . . .	384
Provision for putting the estate in the hands of a security if he is in danger, and for his accounting therefor—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 14, sec. 11, &c. . . . .	409
But the administrator shall go on to discharge his trust, unless the administration is revoked—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 14, sec. 11, &c. . . . .	409
Administrators may appoint a meeting of creditors, legatees, &c. on a day to be appointed by the court, and make distribution under their direction—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 14, sec. 12, . . . . .	410
Directions respecting the preference to residuary legatees in granting administration with a copy of the will annexed—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 5, sec. 24, . . . . .	385
Power of the orphans court respecting administrators—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, . . . . .	410
Administrators to appear to actions brought to recover personal chattels, debt or damages, that would before have abated by the death of a party—1785, ch. 80, sec. 1, . . . . .	229
Directions for compelling them to appear, and for their proceedings—1785, ch. 80, sec. 1, . . . . .	229
The sum found due against them by the jury shall be considered in law as the true debt, and so pleaded by and allowed to them—1785, ch. 80, sec. 13, . . . . .	234
The plea of non est factum may be put in by administrators by leave of the court, on shewing just cause—1785, ch. 80, sec. 3, . . . . .	232
On administrators applying for a writ of error or injunction, the chancellor may prescribe the penalty of the bond—1793, ch. 75, sec. 2, . . . . .	304
When injunctions are so obtained, the chancellor may decree against them as equity and good conscience require—1793, ch. 75, sec. 3, . . . . .	304
Directions respecting their bringing slaves into the state—1797, ch. 15, . . . . .	344
All rules relative to an administrator to apply equally to an administratrix, unless otherwise expressly provided for—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 14, sec. 10, . . . . .	409
An administratrix must be above the age of eighteen—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 5, sec. 1, . . . . .	382
If above that age, unmarried, and under the age of twenty-one, her bond shall be binding as if of full age—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 4, sec. 8, p. 382; sub ch. 5, sec. 7, . . . . .	384
May appear to actions that would have abated by the death of a party, &c.—1801, ch. 74, sec. 38, . . . . .	463
See Abatement .	