

months after commencing trust, of all the property of deceased persons, liable to taxation—1832, ch. 219, sec. 1,	1082
To pay the tax due annually—1832, ch. 219, sec. 2,	1082
Property not released from taxation and levy by way of distress—1832, ch. 219, sec. 3,	1082
When infant is entitled to legacy or distributive share, executor or administrator may pay it over to guardian, if regularly appointed, who shall account for the same—1833, ch. 15,	1111
In cases of mortgages of freehold estates and death of mortgagee, receipts of administrators and executors to have the same effect as reconveyances or releases—1833, ch. 181, sec. 1,	1119
Privilege of appeal allowed to executors and administrators upon judgments rendered by justice of the peace, against their testators or intestates—1834, ch. 105,	1136
All laws relating to proceedings against executors and administrators before justices of the peace, made applicable to similar proceedings before district courts—1835, ch. 201, sec. 22,	1209
Claims for rent in arrear against deceased persons, to have preference over other claims, except such as now have a preference over claims for rent in arrear, without the levying a distress therefor—1836, ch. 192, sec. 1,	1237
Provided the orphans court shall be satisfied of the justice of the claim, and that distress therefore might be levied, &c.—1836, ch. 192, sec. 1,	1237
Provided also that no person who has such claim shall be divested of his right to pursue his remedy, &c.—1836, ch. 192, sec. 1	1238
Orphans court to be satisfied of the correctness of the claim, before passing the account of executor or administrator—1836, ch. 192, sec. 2,	1238
Executor or administrator may contest the claim if he think proper—1836, ch. 192, sec. 2,	1238
No administration bond to be sued until a non est or capias, or fi. fa. be returned by the sheriff of the county where the executor lived, or the effects of the deceased lies, &c.—1720, ch. 24, sec. 2,	55
Persons having claims, &c. may sue administrators, &c. in the county where letters of, were granted—1838, ch. 329,	1294
In case of return of non est, &c. or nulla bona, &c. the bond may be put in suit, &c. and recovery had, &c.—1838, ch. 329, sec. 1,	1294
See Administration Bonds —See Orphans Court .

AD QUOD DAMNUM.

Persons, who have taken out writs under the act of 1704, chapter 16, to have the same benefit under them as if the said act was not repealed—1766, ch. 10,	110
Writs of ad quod damnum to issue to condemn lands for iron works—1719, ch. 15,	52
Repealed by 1832, ch. 55,	1074