

	Page.
Extracts of deeds, that were by law transmitted to the late general court, to be transmitted to the clerks of the court of appeals, &c.—1805, ch. 65, sec. 20,	504
Concerning writs of scire facias on judgments in the late general court or court of appeals—1805, ch. 65, sec. 29,	505
The register in chancery empowered to determine on writ of error bonds till a chancellor should be appointed—1805, ch. 106,	527
On a writ of error or exception taken in actions transmitted from the late general court to any county court, the court of appeals directed to determine thereon, upon the points arising out of the real merits of the case, and not upon the legal form of the record—1806, ch. 41, sec. 2,	540
The judgment not to be reversed for want of such legal form in the record—1806, ch. 41, sec. 2.	540
Decrees by the chief judge of the third judicial district, or by the court, in cases where the chancellor for the time being, may have been counsel, &c. subject to appeal as other decrees—1806, ch. 55,	541
The chief judge in such cases, or where he has given an opinion on a question of law, as therein required, to withdraw from the bench—1806, ch. 55,	541
Where judgments may be reversed, and a procedendo ordered, the writ and proceedings to be sent to the county court which gave the judgment—1806, ch. 90, sec. 1,	544
In suits transferred, the writ, &c. to be sent to the county court, where the defendant was arrested, &c. if more than one defendant, to the clerk of the county where either may reside or was arrested,—1806, ch. 90, sec. 1,	544
In cases of writs of error coram vobis, before the court of appeals, where it may be necessary to try any fact put in issue, the record to be transmitted to the county court for trial—1806, ch. 90, sec. 5,	546
Proceedings on the death of a party, after a cause is put under rule argument, having an attorney in court—1806, ch. 90, sec. 11,	547
See Abatement.
The bond and the securities therein liable as if the appellant were alive at the time of the judgment—1806, ch. 90, sec. 11,	547
The clerks directed to record all deeds or extracts required by law to be recorded as in the late general court—1807, ch. 154, sec. 8,	560
And it shall be his duty to preserve all such papers purporting to be the assent for the issuing of such commissions—1807, ch. 154, sec. 9,	560
To receive the same fees as the county clerks for the like services—1807, ch. 154, sec. 8,	560
Any person committed, &c. may in vacation complain to a judge of the court of appeals, who may award habeas corpus—1809, ch. 125, sec. 2, p. 568; 1813, ch. 175,	624
On refusal, made liable to the action of the party injured—1809, ch. 125, sec. 2,	569
Writs of error to be amended and made agreeable to the record—1809, ch. 153, sec. 2,	589