

	Page.
returned, with a writ of procedendo, to the county court, directing them to proceed to a new trial—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	259
If the appeal is for several exceptions, the court shall give judgment on every exception—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	259
The opinion of the general court shall be conclusive in law as to the question by them decided—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	260
Directions for trying the said actions in the county court—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	260
The appellee, on such reversal, may be compelled to pay the costs in the general court by execution issued therefrom, returnable thereto, or to the county court—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	260
All costs in the county court to abide the final event of the action—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	260
Nothing herein contained shall prevent the party from appealing or prosecuting a writ of error to the court of appeals—1790, ch. 42, sec. 2,	260
On appeals or writs of error brought to the court of appeals by the defendant on a bill or bills of exception, where the judgment shall be reversed if it shall clearly appear to the said court that a new trial is necessary, the transcript shall be returned, with a writ of procedendo, to the judges of the general court, directing them to proceed to a new trial—1790, ch. 42, sec. 3,	260
Further directions given, as in appeals by plaintiffs—1790, ch. 42, sec. 3,	260
On appeals, &c. brought to the general court by the defendant on a bill or bills of exception, where the judgment shall be reversed, if it shall clearly appear to the said court that a new trial is necessary, they may retain the action, and try it the same court, or continue it as other actions, or they may direct the transcript to be returned, with a writ of procedendo, to the county court, directing them to proceed to a new trial—1790, ch. 42, sec. 4,	261
Further directions given, as in appeals by plaintiffs—1790, ch. 42, sec. 4,	261
Directions respecting costs in appeals where the judgment is reversed on the merits of the question—1785, ch. 80, sec. 8,	233
Persons aggrieved by the determination of any magistrate in cases exceeding 20s. or 100 pounds of tobacco, may appeal to the next county court—1791, ch. 68, sec. 4,	279
Mode of proceeding therein—1791, ch. 68, sec. 4,	279
Such appeal not to stay execution, unless bond, with security, is given as therein prescribed—1791, ch. 68, sec. 5,	279
Persons aggrieved by the decree of the county court exercising an original equity jurisdiction, may, (when the sum exceeds £100, or 3,000 pounds of tobacco,) appeal to the chancery court in the same manner as from that court to the court of appeals—1791, ch. 78, sec. 4,	282
Either party aggrieved by the decision of the orphans court, relative to the probat of a will or codicil respecting personal property, or appointing an executor, may appeal within three days to the chancery or general court—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 2, sec. 11,	373