

Such appeal shall stay further proceedings, provided a copy is filed in such appellate court within sixty days thereafter—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 2, sec. 11, 373

The decree of the chancery or general court, to be given on the transcript only, shall be final and conclusive, and the orphans court shall proceed according thereto—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 2, sec. 11, 373

Persons aggrieved by any judgment, decree, decision or order, of the orphans court, may appeal to the court of chancery, or the general court—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

This appeal is remodelled by 1818, ch. 204, 702

If such judgment, &c. is on a summary proceeding, and the testimony of witnesses, the party shall not appeal, unless he shall immediately notify his intention, and request that the testimony be reduced to writing—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

The depositions shall be reduced to writing at the costs of such party in the first instance—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

A transcript of the proceedings relating thereto shall be made and certified under seal by the register, and transmitted to the appellate court by the party within thirty days from the decision, &c. or the party shall lose the privilege of appeal—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

If the decision is in a summary way, and on papers filed in the court, no party shall appeal, unless he enter the same within three days, and transmit a certified copy of the proceedings within thirty days—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

If there have been plenary proceedings, (as therein directed,) either party may appeal, by entering the same as aforesaid, and transmitting a certified copy within sixty days from the decree, &c.—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

Not to affect the case of appeal by the said act before specially provided for—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

The appeal shall stand for hearing, &c. in the appellate court at the term next succeeding the transmission—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

The said court shall either affirm the decree, &c. or direct in what manner it shall be changed or amended, and the decision of such appellate court shall be final and conclusive—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

When such decision shall be certified under the seal of the register or clerk, and transmitted, the orphans court shall proceed according thereto—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 18, 415

An appeal from the orphans court shall not stay any proceedings therein which may with propriety be carried on before the appeal is decided, provided the said orphans court can provide for conforming to the decision of the court above, whether the said decision may eventually be for or against the appellant—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 15, sec. 19, 415

An appeal from the decision of the general court, as to the validity of any marriage, the depositions and evidence in the cause shall be