ASSIGNMENT.

Directions respecting assignments of goods, &c. by persons trading here and residing out of the state—1753, ch. 36,	102
See Bankrupts .
Where any surety to a bond, or other obligation, or endorser of a bill of exchange that shall be protested, shall discharge or tender the sum due thereon, the obligee or endorser shall assign to him such obligation or protested bill, and the assignee shall then have action in his own name against the principal debtor—1763, ch. 23, sec. 7,	107
Bonds or other obligations under seal, being assigned under seal, the assignee may maintain action in his own name against the obligor—1763, ch. 23, sec. 9,	108
If such obligor shall be unable to pay, or cannot be found, &c. so that the assignee cannot recover, the like action shall be maintainable against the obligee, (in case the assignor was not a surety,) unless such debt be lost by default of the assignee, in which case the assignor shall not be liable—1763, ch. 23, sec. 9,	108
No action shall be maintainable in the name of any assignee, unless oath or affirmation be made by the assignor, that he hath received no part of the sum mentioned in the obligation, or such part only as is mentioned in such oath, &c. to be endorsed on the bond—1763, ch. 23, sec. 10,	108
False swearing herein to be punished as wilful perjury—1763, ch. 23, sec. 11,	108
Where judgment is recovered against debtor and surety, and satisfied by the surety, the creditor shall assign such judgment to the surety, and the assignee shall then have, in his own name, as assignee, the same execution against the principal debtor as the creditor might have had—1763, ch. 23, sec. 8,	107
The said assignment to be first recorded in the court where the judgment was obtained—1763, ch. 23, sec. 8,	107
Where judgment is rendered against several sureties, and one of them satisfies the whole, he shall have assignment of the judgment from the creditor, and be entitled to execution against the other sureties
