If the plaintiff, or any person for him, makes oath or affirmation, that he believes the person against whom the attachment is to be served has property belonging to the defendant in his hands or possession, or under his care, or is indebted to the defendant in any sum, (though not then due,) and that he believes that he has just cause to fear that such person is about to remove from the county where he resides, the clerk, on the affidavit being filed, may insert in the attachment a clause of capias ad respondendum against such person as garnishee, pursuant to the plaintiff's claim—1795, ch. 56, sec. 6,	322
Such garnishee shall thereupon be held to sufficient bail to appear at court, and to make answer as above directed, and to render his body to prison, or pay the condemnation money, if judgment shall pass against him—1795, ch. 56, sec. 6,	322
May issue from the county courts on any judgment against the goods of the defendant, in the hands of the plaintiff or any other person whether residing in the county in which such judgment is obtained or in any other county—1824, ch. 74, sec. 1,	806
In cases of judgments in any of the courts of this state, instead of any other execution, the plaintiff may take out an attachment against the lands, goods, &amp;c. of the defendant, whether in his own, or in the hands of others, and whether he reside in the county where the judgment was rendered or elsewhere—1834, ch. 189,	1141
In any case where a writ of attachment has been returned nulla bona, the plaintiff may issue a writ to the sheriff of any other county in which it may be supposed the defendant has goods, &amp;c.—1837, ch. 246, sec. 1,	1256
Clerk in such cases to furnish a copy of the docket entries—1837, ch. 246, sec. 1.	1256
To be directed to the sheriff or coroner of the county in which the plaintiff or person in whose hands the goods may be, and to be returned by him to the county court of such county—1824, ch. 74, sec. 1,	806
Where returnable to another county than that in which the judgment is rendered, it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to produce a short copy of the judgment attested, &amp;c.—1824, ch. 74, sec. 1,	807
Provided no attachment shall issue to any other county unless on a return of nulla bona in the county in which such judgment is rendered—1824, ch. 74, sec. 1,	807
In cases of attachment the garnishee may come in and confess the amount of goods, &amp;c. in his hands—1824, ch. 74, sec. 2,	807
If the plaintiff shall not take judgment for the amount so confessed, but claim a larger sum, the garnishee shall be allowed the costs of suit, unless on a final decision a larger amount shall be recovered—1824, ch. 74, sec. 2,	807
Persons resident of the United States, and who may under the existing laws sue out mesne process, may use and prosecute the process of attachment under the limitations heretofore prescribed—1825, ch. 114, sec. 1,	832
