

mark and bound the whole tract, and the particular part of the applicant—1793, ch. 70, sec. 4, . . . . .	303
When any tract shall lie partly in this state, and partly in an adjoining state, a citizen of this or any other state may obtain a commission to mark and bound the part within this state—1793, ch. 70, sec. 4, . . . . .	303
Such commissions to have the same effect as if the land had been wholly in one county, or in this state—1793, ch. 70, sec. 4, . . . . .	303
A commission may issue on application, notice, &c. to mark and bound land held by bodies politic and corporate—Nov. 1787, ch. 22, . . . . .	249
Directions for the commissioners to give notice and to meet to execute the commission, after taking the oath therein prescribed—1786, ch. 33, sec. 3, . . . . .	239
Manner of summoning and compelling the attendance of witnesses, and administering an oath to them on taking their testimony—1786, ch. 33, sec. 4, . . . . .	239
The commissioners may cause the land mentioned in the said commission, as well as any other lands they may think proper, to be surveyed by the surveyor of the county, or any other whom they may appoint—1786, ch. 33, sec. 4, . . . . .	239
They may administer an oath or affirmation to the surveyor and chain-carrier, to execute their respective duties—1793, ch. 70, sec. 2, . . . . .	303
They, or any two of them, may adjourn from time to time—1786, ch. 33, sec. 4, . . . . .	239
They, or the majority of them, or the major part of such majority met, concurring in opinion, may and shall cause the land mentioned in such commission to be marked in the lines where convenient, and shall mark or set up boundaries at the termination of the lines, when course and distance only are given; according to their adjudication and adjustment of the location thereof—1786, ch. 33, sec. 4, . . . . .	239
They shall return a certificate of such marked lines and boundaries to the court, under their hands, which return shall be received and recorded in the records of such county, unless the court shall otherwise order because of ill behaviour of the commissioners—1786, ch. 33, sec. 4, . . . . .	239
They may summon and compel the attendance of witnesses to prove boundaries which are desired to be perpetuated, and may take depositions, and return them with their proceedings, which shall be as good evidence as if a commission for that purpose had issued under the act of 1723, ch. 8—1793, ch. 70, sec. 2, . . . . .	302
The commissioners may apply to the county clerks for attachments against such witnesses not attending—1793, ch. 70, sec. 3, . . . . .	303
The marking and bounding such land, and the record thereof, shall be conclusive evidence of the original location, both as to the direction and termination of the lines, in case no suit shall be brought within five years from the recording such return to call in question the adjudication—1786, ch. 33, sec. 5, . . . . .	240
Where the adjudication shall be confirmed by the verdict of a jury, it
