

Bonds to be given by trustees appointed by the chancellor to sell property—1785, ch. 72, sec. 8, . . . . . 212

Directions respecting bonds taken for the property sold—1785, ch. 72, sec. 8, 9, . . . . . 212

Respecting bonds to be required by the chancellor from trustees appointed by will—1785, ch. 72, sec. 10, . . . . . 213

Respecting bonds for the purchase money of the personal property of an idiot, directed to be sold by the chancellor—1790, ch. 60, sec. 2, . . . . . 267

The chancellor empowered to prescribe the penalty of bonds for obtaining writs of error to the general court or court of appeals, by executors or administrators, on a statement of facts by them supported by affidavit or other proof—1793, ch. 75, sec. 2, . . . . . 304

When an application is made for an injunction, the chancellor is empowered to prescribe the penalty of a bond to be executed to the plaintiff at law, with a surety or sureties—1793, ch. 75, sec. 3, . . . . . 304

The condition of such bond prescribed—1793, ch. 75, sec. 3, . . . . . 304

Executors not obliged to exhibit inventories or accounts, if they will give bond as therein directed for paying all just debts, claims and legacies, in cases therein mentioned—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 14, sec. 6, . . . . . 408

APPEAL BONDS.

The form of them, and how to be approved—1826, ch. 200, sec. 1, 2, . . . . . 884

Appeal may be made at any time in vacation—1826, ch. 200, sec. 2, . . . . . 885

Writ of error bond, how to be approved—1826, ch. 200, sec. 4, . . . . . 885

If decree is in chancery, how bond is to be approved of—1826, ch. 200, sec. 5, . . . . . 885

Sureties on bonds to be liable for fees—1826, ch. 200, sec. 9, . . . . . 886

Certain acts repealed—1826, ch. 200, sec. 18, . . . . . 888

Proceedings on appeal, &c. to be transmitted—1826, ch. 200, sec. 6, . . . . . 885

Penalty on clerks for refusing, &c.—1826, ch. 200, sec. 7, . . . . . 885

If no record shall be transmitted, court may fine the clerk, &c.—1826, ch. 200, sec. 8, . . . . . 886

How appeals are to be regulated—1826, ch. 200, sec. 10, . . . . . 886

Judgment confessed by way of supersedeas, may be appealed from—1826, ch. 200, sec. 11, . . . . . 886

Copy of any appeal bond to be evidence, &c.—1826, ch. 200, sec. 12, . . . . . 887

Limitation as to appeals—1826, ch. 200, sec. 13, . . . . . 887

New sureties to bonds may be required—1826, ch. 200, sec. 15, . . . . . 887

Further time for that purpose may be allowed—1826, ch. 200, sec. 16, . . . . . 887

Appeal bonds, &c. not to be avoided as to matter of form—1826, ch. 200, sec. 17, . . . . . 886

BOOKS.

The chancellor may, on application of either party, in actions in the general court, or on bills in the chancery court, require and decree that the parties shall produce either the original book, &c. or certified copies, on being satisfied by oath, &c. that the said books