

	Page.
Respecting the proceedings on bills filed against infants out of the state—1799, ch. 79, sec. 4,	419
A commission for any purpose, with the consent of parties and approbation of the chancellor, which may lawfully issue, to be directed to them, with power to any two—1799, ch. 79, sec. 6,	420
A power given to bring suits in equity against the state as therein mentioned—1799, ch. 79, sec. 7, 8,	420
Provision made for compelling an answer from defendants appearing agreeably to an order limiting a day therefor, or for proceeding without such answer—1799, ch. 79, sec. 9,	421
Directions respecting property taken in execution on which an injunction has issued—1799, ch. 79, sec. 10,	421
Where a perpetual injunction is decreed against the state, the chancellor may order the treasurer to cancel the bond—1799, ch. 79, sec. 11,	422
In all cases of contracts by non-residents or parties not known, or if dead who is heir, &c. if a bill is filed to compel a specific performance, the chancellor without the appearance of the party either takes the bill pro confesso or issues commission, &c. and may decree—1804, ch. 107,	498
Notice to be given, &c. if an appearance in 18 months decree to be opened—1804, ch. 107,	499
Party may appear before decree, &c.—1804, ch. 107,	499
Chancellor may direct the sale of personal property of idiots, &c. if it appears beneficial to convert the same into money, and to place it at interest—1790, ch. 60, sec. 2,	267
May order the property of idiots, &c. to be sold for their support—1800 ch. 67, sec. 2,	429
May order the whole property, if it will not admit of division, to be sold, and to direct the manner of the application of the money—1800, ch. 67, sec. 3,	429
Sales to be notified and confirmed before a conveyance—1800, ch. 67, sec. 4,	430
On the death of the lunatic, to whom the money is to belong—1800, ch. 67, sec. 5,	430
The chancellor upon application, to send idiots, &c. to the hospital—May, 1813, ch. 21, sec. 1,	614
Shall have power to remove such idiot, &c. —1813, ch. 21, sec. 2,	614
Power of the chancellor to decree the sale of the equitable title on giving notice to the person having the legal title—1795, ch. 88, sec. 2, 3,	330
A commission to take depositions may (with the consent of both parties) issue to one person instead of four—1795, ch. 88, sec. 4,	331
Directions for notice and proceedings against the other heirs, where the person appears who would have been heir before the act to direct descents—1797, ch. 114, sec. 2,	356
Against persons returned non est, and evading the sheriff—1797, ch. 114, sec. 3,	357