

	Page.
Each party on application entitled to a copy of the interrogatories of the adverse party before any examination is made—1785, ch. 72, sec. 14,	215
Directions respecting the adjournment of the commissioner for the purpose of receiving additional interrogatories, &c.—1785, ch. 72, sec. 14,	215
In all cases the defendant in chancery may exhibit interrogatories to the plaintiff, which shall be answered by him in writing on oath—1785, ch. 72, sec. 21,	219
Such answer to be evidence in the same manner as the defendant's answer to the bill, and the same process to issue to compel answer to such interrogatories as to compel an answer from the defendant—1785, ch. 72, sec. 21,	219

JUDGES.

Directions relative to the time and place of attending of some one of the associate judges of the several judicial districts relative to the matter of adjudication upon the equity side, &c.—1814, ch. 94, sec. 3,	627
Clerks of the several county courts to attend the judge, &c.—1814, ch. 94, sec. 3,	627
County courts to appoint the days on which said judges shall attend as aforesaid, &c.—1814, ch. 94, sec. 3,	627
Judges not to interfere in any cause or process now depending, or hereafter to be brought or issued, before or by the chancellor, or to change the manner of issuing writs of error—1814, ch. 94, sec. 7,	628
Judges of the county courts to exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the chancellor, &c.—1815, ch. 163, sec. 1,	634

JURISDICTION.

Amount for which bills may be filed in chancery—April, 1715, ch. 41, sec. 7,	25
County courts may exercise original concurrent jurisdiction with the court of chancery—1814, ch. 94, p. 628; 1815, ch. 163,	634

LUNATICS.

See Idiots—Infants.

MAINTENANCE.

No part of the real estate of a ward to be diminished on account of the maintenance or education of such ward, without the approbation of the chancery court, as well as the orphans court—1798, ch. 101, sub ch. 12, sec. 10,	405
The principal of an infant's estate not to be applied to the education or maintenance of such infants, without the approbation of the chancellor or county court—1816, ch. 154, sec. 8,	645

MARRIAGE.

The chancellor may determine all cases for alimony as fully as the ecclesiastical courts of England—Feb. 1777, ch. 12, sec. 14,	134
---	-----