

To furnish copies of the assessment for the governor and council, and for the collectors—1794, ch. 53, sec. 2,	307
To record the collectors' bonds—1794, ch. 53, sec. 2,	307
Clerks directed to issue executions to an elisor when appointed by a judge or justice—1794, ch. 54, sec. 5,	312
Sheriffs' bonds to be delivered to the county clerks, to be recorded by them, and copies to be transmitted to the clerks of the general court—1794, ch. 54, sec. 8,	313
County clerks shall, before issuing a writ on any administration bond, &c. endorse thereon the names of the parties at whose instance, and for whose use, the suit was instituted—1794, ch. 54, sec. 10,	314
Clerks of the court of appeals, general court, or any county or levy court, when the courts do not meet at the time prescribed, are empowered and required to adjourn their courts from day to day till the meeting of the judges or justices—1795, ch. 55.
See Court of Appeals.
County clerks to transmit annually, on or before the tenth of November, to the treasurer, lists of executions for fines, and of the sums acknowledged to be received therefor by the sheriffs—1795, ch. 74, sec. 5,	328
Duty of the clerks on attachments by warrant against persons out of the state—1795, ch. 56,	320
See Attachments.
County clerks to record the certificates of the oath of the sheriffs returned to them—1797, ch. 87, sec. 2,	349
Coroners' bonds to be recorded by the county clerks—1797, ch. 95, sec. 1,	353
The form of the bond to be executed by them—1800, ch. 82, sec. 2,	431
Not to receive fees until they have entered into bond with two sufficient securities—1800, ch. 82, sec. 4,	432
Manner of entering up judgment and issuing execution against them—1800, ch. 82, sec. 4,	432
Default of payment for two successive terms, to which the execution is returnable, declared to be a misbehaviour in office—1800, ch. 82, sec. 5,	433
To return to the levy court, of fines, received by them from the justices, and imposed on witnesses for non-attendance—1801, ch. 42,	435
Manifests of tobacco delivered over by the old to the new inspectors to be lodged with them—1801, ch. 63, sec. 39,	453
Judgments to be entered by confession or non sum informatum by the direction of a judge out of court—1801, ch. 74, sec. 17,	461
County clerks directed, under the penalty of fifty dollars, to make out in the month of November yearly, two copies of the levy list allowed by the levy courts, one copy to be sent to the senate, and one to the house of delegates—1801, ch. 74, sec. 27,	461
The public papers of notaries, on their death, &c. to be lodged with the county clerks, who may sue for the same—1801, ch. 86, sec. 6,	464
Oaths of the judges to be recorded—1805, ch. 65, sec. 3,	501