

	Page.
tioned, required by law to be recorded at full length—1817, ch. 119, sec. 7, . . . . .	666
The judges, or one or more, at every term, to inspect the judgments, and see whether the duties enjoined are performed—1817, ch. 119, sec. 7, . . . . .	666
Penalty on clerks neglecting or refusing—1817, ch. 119, sec. 7, . . . . .	666
A conviction to be taken as misbehaviour in office, for which they may be removed—1817, ch. 119, sec. 7, . . . . .	666
Not necessary for the clerks to make up records of judgments, &c. not relating to lands, &c. unless required in writing; but if an exemplification is required, they may certify the same, the minutes, &c. being sufficient vouchers for making a proper record—1817, ch. 119, sec. 8, . . . . .	667
Instead of those records the clerks directed to enter the minutes and docket entries of every action, &c. the judgment, &c. before the ensuing term—1817, ch. 119, sec. 9, . . . . .	667
The judges to require the production of the book, and to examine the entries, and decide whether the duties have been discharged—1817, ch. 119, sec. 9, . . . . .	667
Penalty on neglect or refusal of the clerks to provide such book and make the entries—1817, ch. 119, sec. 9, . . . . .	667
A conviction thereof to be taken as misbehaviour in office, for which they may be removed—1817, ch. 119, sec. 9, . . . . .	667
Duty of the county clerks prescribed as to the conveyance and return of process, and penalty for neglect or delay—1817, ch. 139, . . . . .	669
Their duties and fees respecting German and Swiss emigrants—1817, ch. 226, . . . . .	684
Not to collect by execution, any fees for recording any deed, bills of sale, or other instruments of writing, or for recording judgments where they are required to be recorded, unless the same shall have been actually entered and enrolled—1819, ch. 155, sec. 1, . . . . .	717
Penalty for offences under this act—1819, ch. 155, sec. 3, . . . . .	717
To issue licenses to retailers of dry goods—1819, ch. 184, . . . . .	722
Clerks authorized to record deeds, &c. where the time limited for their being recorded, shall have expired between the death, &c. of one clerk and the qualification of a successor, upon making a special endorsement on the deed—1822, ch. 104, . . . . .	781
Such deeds to have the same effect, &c.—1822, ch. 104, . . . . .	781
Clerks to approve of the security in appeal writ of error, for removing of proceedings by certiorari, and injunction bonds, in the same manner as the judges of the county courts are authorized to do—1822, ch. 131, sec. 1, . . . . .	783
Compensation for such service to be paid by the party presenting the bond, and taxed in the costs—1822, ch. 131, sec. 2, . . . . .	783
Times fixed, at which they shall pay into the treasury all public moneys collected by them—1822, ch. 217, sec. 1. . . . .	787
To pay into the treasury the amount received by them for marriage, ordinary and retailers' licenses, including the costs or fees chargeable at time of granting them—1822, ch. 217, sec. 2, . . . . .	787